

I think Florence Nightingale was a very important person because saving lives is an amazing thing and you have to be brave with a Golden heart, that's why I think She is a good person..

Her parents were William Edward Nightingale and Frances (fanny) Nightingale. Her father died in 1875 and her mother died in 1880.

Florence Nightingale By Katie Dawson

She was born in Florence in Italy and was named after the place. She was baptised as an infant in Florence.

Florence Nightingale looked after wounded soldiers in the Crimean War and then she trained nurses up to professionals.
